Curriculum Spotlight—Certification Training

Get skills. Get certified.

HP Education Services delivers the skills and knowledge to support industry-leading ITIL, VMware, Microsoft and HP ExpertONE certifications. We provide a broad range of in-depth, skills-based IT training solutions that combine technical knowledge, business insight, hands-on experience and certification exam preparation. Learners gain the expertise to install, manage and support complex multi-vendor environments while also achieving certification milestones. Our training is professionally developed and delivered by certified instructors with relevant industry and product/technology expertise.

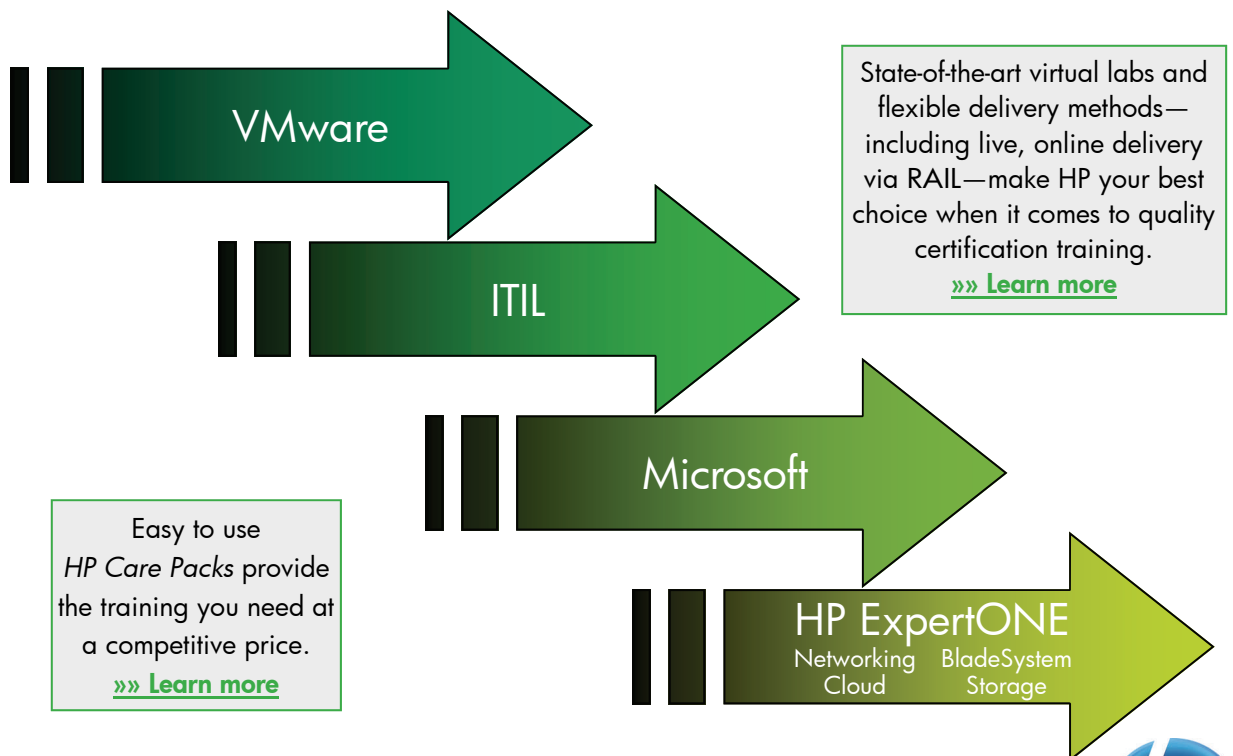

Our mission is twofold:

- For the IT organization—We help conquer the IT expertise gap by quickly and effectively developing the skill sets you need.
- For the IT professional—We help you gain a competitive advantage and more satisfying career.

Launch your career.

Conquer the skills gap.
