

Software Assurance

HP education services

Take advantage of free Microsoft training with HP! Software Assurance for volume licensing has added enhancements to make it even more valuable to you and your organization. Along with the great benefits of comprehensive technology protection, predictable budgeting and better license management, the program has been enlarged to include learning resources at no additional cost.

Now Software Assurance offers top learning resources specific to your volume license agreement which can include e-learning courses, access to TechNet Online Concierge chat or TechNet Plus and vouchers for free training redeemable at Microsoft Certified Partners for Learning Solutions (CPLS) worldwide.

Global HP CPLS offer

As a Microsoft CPLS, HP can help you assess your company's training needs and extend your training budget by building a cost-effective solution that leverages these valuable training, e-learning and support benefits.

Customized learning solutions

For your employees who learn best in a hands-on, instructor-led classroom environment, Microsoft training vouchers can be redeemed against any Microsoft Official Curriculum course. Take advantage of these training vouchers at HP's education centers, via RAIL, or have us come to you. You may use your vouchers to redeem a dedicated onsite course at your site or ours based on your needs.

HP Virtual Labs and Rooms

You can even use your training vouchers for training solutions in our HP Virtual Labs (HPVL) and HP Virtual Rooms (HPVR). HP offers hands-on Microsoft education without leaving your desk. We call it RAIL—Remotely Assisted Instructional Learning. With RAIL delivered by HP, you can attend instructor-led Microsoft training real time over the internet.

HP offers a broad selection of training courses on Microsoft technologies:

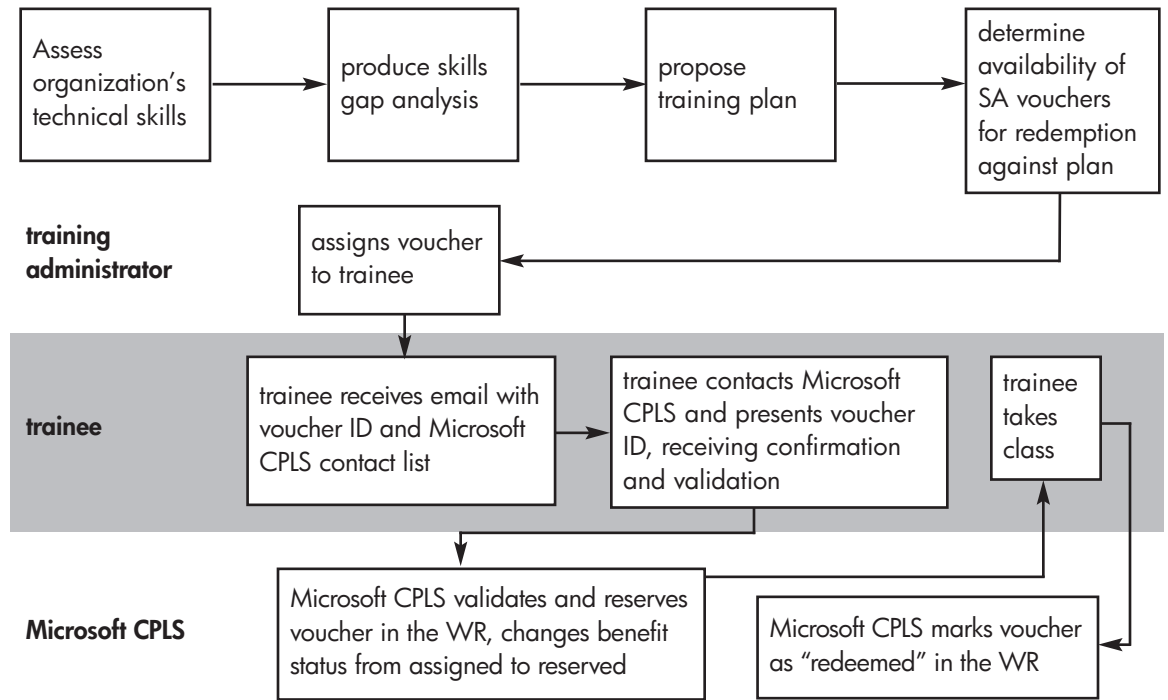

- Microsoft Office System 2003/2007
- Microsoft Windows XP/Vista
- Microsoft Windows Server 2003/2008
