

Executive biography

Christopher Privon

Vice President, LaserJet Business, Imaging and Printing Group

Hewlett-Packard Company

Chris Privon is currently the vice president of the LaserJet business in the Imaging and Printing Group at HP. In this role, he is responsible for the development of multifunction solutions with LaserJet printers as their foundation.

Privon was the Personal LaserJet Division marketing manager until 1998 when he accepted a position as general manager of the Display Products Division, a start-up division based in Boise, Idaho.

In September 1999, Privon returned to the Personal LaserJet organization, this time as the general manager. After that, Privon led the networked LaserJet organization for both monochrome and color.

Privon holds a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Tennessee Tech and a master's degree from the University of Virginia.
