

Administaff – Nation's Leading Professional Employer Organization

Overview

Since 1986, Administaff has been the nation's leading professional employer organization, serving as a full-service human resources department providing small and medium-size businesses throughout the United States with administrative relief, big-company benefits, reduced liabilities and a systematic way to improve productivity.

Assisting more than 5,000 client companies, Administaff delivers its personnel management services and assumes or shares many of the responsibilities of being an employer.

In addition, Administaff provides the client company and its employees with a wide array of value-added benefits and services not typically available at small businesses.

As advocates for small business in America, Administaff and HP are working hard to equip small business owners with dynamic services and solutions that help small businesses increase productivity and profitability and exceed growth goals.
