

HP SureSupply Software Utility

Overview

The new HP SureSupply Software Utility provides customers with quick, convenient and hassle-free access to Original HP supplies shopping with the click of a mouse.⁽¹⁾ This free, easy-to-install software automatically identifies the HP printers installed on the customer's PC.⁽²⁾ Users simply click on the desktop icon, select the printer or printers they want to shop for and are connected to HP SureSupply, where they can view a list of compatible Original HP printing supplies. This process gives customers confidence they are ordering the correct Original HP inkjet cartridges, LaserJet toners and HP papers every time. HP SureSupply gives customers the option to check availability and buy direct from the HP Home & Home Office Store (www.hpshopping.com) or from a selection of online stores, or to check product availability from local retail outlets (U.S. only).
