

LYNN PENDERGRASS

Senior Vice President and General Manager Americas Region
Imaging and Printing Group

HEWLETT-PACKARD COMPANY

Lynn Pendergrass is senior vice president of HP's Imaging and Printing Group (IPG) Americas Region, which comprises the United States, Canada, Mexico, Latin America and the Caribbean. In this position, Pendergrass is responsible for maximizing the IPG profit and revenue growth in the Americas region, extending its market leadership position, driving HP's company-wide consumer go-to-market activities and ensuring a superior customer experience. Pendergrass oversees all IPG sales as well as its operational supply chain, marketing and category management activities.

Pendergrass came to HP in October 2008 after 21 years with GE, where she was vice president, Global Product Management, Marketing and Consumer Home Services (CHS) of GE Consumer and Industrial. In this role, she had direct management responsibility for global product management, marketing and service related activities for all of the appliance, lighting and industrial products within Consumer and Industrial.

Pendergrass holds a bachelor of science and a master's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Louisville.
