HP Pro Slate 12

Work seamlessly in and out of the office with the HP Pro Slate 12, a commercial-grade Android™ tablet with hardware-enabled security, a Qualcomm Snapdragon 800 series processor,[1] and an integrated HP Duet Pen.[2]

Designed to dominate

- Get the job done on a 12.3-inch diagonal tablet that's ready for business with 4:3 aspect ratio for natural readability of full-page content, 1600 x 1200 HD resolution for crisp views of documents and multi-media content, and an impressive Corning® Concore® Glass screen.

Hardened data protection

- Stay lock-tight secure and in control with a commercial-grade Android™ tablet--and integrated business-class hardware security managed by HP Touchpoint Manager,[3] HP Managed Mobility Services,[3] and optional third-party Enterprise Mobility Management suites.[4]

Create content on the go

- Be more productive than ever by writing directly on your tablet or instantly digitizing the notes you write on paper.[2] The included high-fidelity HP Duet Pen, integrated suite of productivity apps, and range of available apps on Google Play™ give you the flexibility to write on paper or your tablet.

Powerful and connected

- Get to work fast with lightning-quick app responsiveness, screaming fast graphics, and long battery life from a Qualcomm Snapdragon 800 series processor.[1] Connect wirelessly with the latest 802.11 WiFi protocols,[5] Bluetooth® and WiFi Direct support.[6]

Featuring

- Help protect your tablet with device authentication and tamper-resistant features.
- Manage data, security, and a wide array of branded devices from the cloud with optional HP Touchpoint Manager.[3] Use Locate Device to remotely locate, lock, and wipe your tablet.[3]
- Easily integrate your devices with optional, leading EMM solutions or customize your enterprise mobility solution with optional HP Managed Mobility Services.[4]
- Do more with up to 32 GB storage,[8] micro USB 2.0 connectivity, and integrated communication tools.
- Go business-class all the way with innovative optional accessories[4] that connect easily with a zero-force, Pogo pin connector. Make it yours with a choice of adapters, HP Bluetooth Keyboard Folio or HP Paper Folio for use with the HP Duet Pen.[2]
- Run meetings without wires by securely sharing your screen over Miracast.[9]
- Rely on support you can trust with HP's world-class limited warranty and optional HP Care Services.[10]
- Cover spills, drops, falls, and more with HP Accidental Damage Protection.[10]
