

Executive Biography

Amol Mitra

Vice President and General Manager, HP Networking Channels
Hewlett-Packard Asia Pacific and Japan

Amol Mitra is the channel leader for HP Networking, Asia Pacific and Japan.

A network evangelist and technology expert with 30 years of experience in the IT industry, Mitra has led and participated in several HP cross-business initiatives spanning the areas of storage, servers, services and networking.

Most recently, Mitra served as vice president and general manager of HP Networking in Asia Pacific and Japan. In this role, Mitra led a cross-regional team of sales, pre-sales, product marketing, marketing and demand generation leaders driving exponential growth in HP's networking business.

Previously, Mitra was the senior director of marketing for HP Networking across Asia Pacific and Japan. In this role, he drove awareness, demand generation and sales enablement, establishing HP Networking as one of the region's enterprise switching leaders.

During his 20 year tenure at HP, Mitra also served as director of worldwide product marketing for HP's ProCurve business while based in the US. He was part of the core team that innovated HP's Adaptive Network vision and was instrumental in the successful integration of the 3COM business following its acquisition by HP. Mitra also helped launch HP into the wireless and security technology space and secure HP's networking position as number two in the enterprise networking switch market.

Mitra holds several patents for developing cutting edge technology in the network switching area. He holds a bachelor's degree in computer science from M.S. University, India; a master's degree in computer science from Purdue University; and an MBA from the University of California at Davis.
