

Word Template Downloading Instructions

1. To download a template, click on its image or file name.
2. Save the file to your PC or Mac following the appropriate steps for your browser and operating system. (PC users may want to right click on the image or file name and select “save target as.”)
3. Open the file. To customize the template with your own text or logo, follow the suggestions in the downloaded template file.