

Executive Biography

*John Thompson
Vice President and General
Manager, Workstations Global Business Unit*

John Thompson

Vice President and General Manager, Workstations Global Business Unit

Hewlett-Packard Company

John Thompson is the vice president and general manager of the Workstation Global Business Unit. Based in Fort Collins, Colorado, John is responsible for HP's workstations business in all market segments worldwide. His responsibilities include workstation strategy and roadmap, product development, complete lifecycle management, global supply chain, total customer experience, profit and loss.

Before assuming this role, John held several vice president and general manager positions in HP's Americas region, including the HP Americas Solution Partners organization where he led the channel partner sales organization and the Commercial Solutions organization.

Prior to joining HP, John held several senior roles within Compaq, including vice president of the North America region's marketing and product group and vice president and general manager for Compaq's Enterprise business in Europe based in Germany.

Thompson has also held several executive management positions within marketing, sales, product, and operations at HP before joining Compaq, as well as at Eastman Kodak Company.

Thompson received his bachelor's degree from the School of International Service at the American University in Washington D.C. and holds a Masters in Business Administration from Suffolk University in Boston, Massachusetts.